Looking after someone at home

A practical guide for carers: getting support, moving safely, falls, medicines and an emergency plan, with local help in Gwent

For adults who look after a partner, relative, friend or neighbour who is ill, older or disabled. This edition adds a list of local help in Gwent.

Their own care plan comes first. If the person you look after has advice from a hospital, GP, physiotherapist or care team, follow that. This guide is general information. It is not a care plan.

Help for you as a carer

- You can ask for a carer's assessment. It is free. Contact adult social services at your local council.
- It looks at how caring affects you: your health, work, free time and relationships. You can ask for it at the same time as the assessment for the person you look after.
- Help that may follow includes breaks from caring, training in moving and handling, local support groups and advice on benefits.
- If you care for someone for at least 35 hours a week, you may be able to get Carer's Allowance. The person you look after must get certain benefits. Check on GOV.UK. In Scotland it is called Carer Support Payment.

- Breaks help stop you becoming worn out. Options include a sitting service, where a trained volunteer keeps the person company for a few hours, a day centre, or a short stay in a care home. The council only pays for a break when it has assessed that one is needed.
- Our free guide to your rights as a carer covers the assessment, money help and your rights at work: mobilephysiotherapist.co.uk/carers-rights.

Moving and helping them safely

Helping someone stand, walk, or get in and out of bed can hurt you both if it is done the wrong way. Back injuries are the most common injury for carers.

- If you help someone move often, get training, or ask a health professional to show you how.
- Ask the council for an occupational therapy assessment. It can show you the right way to help, and what equipment would make it safer.
- The council may provide equipment free, such as a hoist, stand aid, transfer board or slide sheet.
- Do not buy lifting equipment until an occupational therapist, physiotherapist or social worker has advised you. Try equipment before you buy it.
- Your council may run free moving and handling courses.

Helping to prevent falls

- Keep floors clear of clutter, loose wires and rugs.
- Use a non-slip mat in the bath or shower.
- Encourage regular eye tests and hearing checks. Ear problems can affect balance.

- If you think a medicine is affecting their balance, speak to their GP or pharmacist.
- Help them stay active every day. Activities that improve strength and balance, done at least twice a week, help too. Our free sheet of simple exercises is at mobilephysiotherapist.co.uk/balance-exercises.

If they fall

- Keep them comfortable and warm.
- If they can get up, help them carefully. Do not try to lift them yourself.
- Call 999 if they cannot get up, or they may have hurt their head, neck, back or hip.
- Call NHS 111 if they may be in pain, hurt or unwell.

Tell their GP about any fall, even if they were not hurt.

Medicines

- Give medicines at the right time of day. Check whether each one should be taken with food or between meals.
- A pharmacist may be able to give you a pill box with a section for each time of day.
- If they take several medicines, their GP surgery may offer a free review with a pharmacist. Try to go with them, if they would like you there.
- Keep all medicines in one place, ideally locked away. Order repeat prescriptions in good time.
- Never give a double dose to make up for a missed one. Check with a pharmacist before giving a medicine you have bought.

- Never give medicine without their agreement. Check with their doctor or pharmacist before you crush tablets.

Plan for an emergency

If you were ill, or could not get to them, who would step in? Make a plan now, while things are calm.

- Ask a relative, friend or neighbour who could help at short notice. Make sure they have a key or the key safe code, and know what care is needed.
- Write down the care they need, with their medicines and any dos and don'ts. Keep it somewhere easy to find, and tell people where it is.
- Look at the plan again now and then, and keep it up to date.
- Some areas have a carers emergency card scheme. Ask your local carers service.

Local help in Gwent

Gwent has four councils in this guide: Newport City Council, Monmouthshire County Council, Torfaen County Borough Council and Blaenau Gwent County Borough Council. Each line says which area it is for. Health services are run by Aneurin Bevan University Health Board. Some services cover all of Gwent.

Help for carers. The Gwent Carers Hub, run by Adferiad, gives information, advice and practical support to unpaid carers across Gwent. You can contact it yourself. It is open Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm, in Pontypool. You can also ask your council for a carer's needs assessment. Use the council numbers in this list. 01495 367564 · adferiad.org

Newport City Council adult social care. For people in Newport. Call social services on 01633 656656 to ask for help or an assessment. There is no charge for an assessment. newport.gov.uk

Monmouthshire County Council adult social care. For people in Monmouthshire. Call the team for your area. Monmouth, Usk and Raglan: 01600 773041. Abergavenny: 01873 735885. Chepstow and Caldicot: 01291 635666. monmouthshire.gov.uk

Torfaen County Borough Council adult social care. For people in Torfaen, including Cwmbran, Pontypool and Blaenavon. Call 01495 762200, Monday to Thursday 8.30am to 5pm, Friday 8.30am to 4.30pm. torfaen.gov.uk

Blaenau Gwent County Borough Council adult social care. For people in Blaenau Gwent, including Ebbw Vale, Tredegar, Brynmawr and Abertillery. Call the Adult Services advice hub on 01495 315700. blaenau-gwent.gov.uk

Equipment. Equipment is lent after an assessment by an occupational therapist. Ask your council's adult social care team, or your GP. If you are in hospital, ask the ward. When you no longer need it, Medequip will collect it free. Call 01633 987409.

Falls. If you have fallen, or are worried about falling, ask your GP about the Aneurin Bevan falls service. A falls nurse or therapist can check things with you at home. Torfaen: call the Falls Information Line on 01633 647480. Blaenau Gwent: ask the advice hub on 01495 315700. movebettergwent.nhs.wales

Personal alarms. Torfaen: Lifeline gives you a button to press for help, 24 hours a day. You do not need an assessment for it. There is a charge. Ask online at torfaen.gov.uk. Monmouthshire: call AssistiveTech Monmouthshire on 01633 644644. Newport: the council suggests you arrange a simple alarm yourself. Bigger alarm packages are possible after an assessment, and there is a charge.
